

Seminar

Preparation of Smart Village Development Plans and Projects

In the seminar, members of rural community organizations and local action groups will be introduced to the specificities of the development plans and projects of the new European Commission's initiative "Smart Villages", and examples of good practice of Smart Village projects will be presented.